

Kathleen Brady – Leadership Coach & Trainer

Kathleen Brady is a certified Career & Life Management Coach, author and educator with more than 25 years of experience in helping people identify and integrate their professional and personal goals. Specializing in the legal industry, she teaches her clients how to develop a comprehensive career/life strategy to achieve professional success while living happy, joyful lives.

Kathleen is a sought-after industry coach and speaker with expertise in finding employment, professional advancement and career/life management. A frequent contributor to Your Money in the New York Daily News, she also has been featured on FoxNews, CNN, NPR, This Week in America, First Business Report and radio stations across the country. She has published four books about career management including, GET A JOB! 10 Steps to Career Success (Motivational Press, 2015) and has a weekly blog, Mastering The Art of Success.

Coaching Approach: Everything is possible!

Grounded in a firm belief that everything is possible IF you are willing to put in the effort, Kathleen inspires clients to explore their dreams for clues about what would fill their hearts with joy and empowers them to define success for themselves. She guides her clients through a self-discovery journey - amid the obstacles and realities of life - offering practical action steps to make the impossible... possible!

Professional Highlights

Principal, KBCareerplanners, LLC and Kanarek & Brady, LLC

Executive Director, Career Services and

Adjunct Instructor, Georgian Court University

Manager of Professional Development, Milbank Tweed

Assistant Dean, Fordham University School of Law

President, National Association for Law Placement

Education Highlights

Certified Professional Coach,

Institute of Professional Excellence in Coaching (iPEC)

Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner Certification

Highlands Ability Battery Affiliate

Pursuing MA Theology, Georgian Court University

BA, Fordham University